LAW SOCIETY WELCOMES APPOINTMENT OF JEFF RADEBE AS NEW MINISTER OF JUSTICE AND CONSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The Law Society of South Africa (LSSA) – which represents South Africa’s 18 600 attorneys – welcomes the appointment of the new Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development, Mr Jeff Radebe.

‘The LSSA looks forward to meeting Mr Radebe at his earliest convenience so as to bring him up to date with developments in the attorneys’ profession, particularly issues of seminal importance such as the Legal Practice Bill,’ say LSSA Co-Chairpersons, Thoba Poyo-Dlwati and Henri van Rooyen.

The LSSA envisages working closely with the Minister in ensuring that the Bill will transform the governance and regulation of the profession by promoting, on a national basis, a unified regulatory regime for both attorneys and advocates.

‘A strong, unified legal profession is imperative to protect South Africa’s constitutional democracy, as well as the independence of both the judiciary and the legal profession. It is also important to promote greater access to justice for the public and access to the profession by more practitioners, particularly previously disadvantaged practitioners; and in promoting transparency so as to enhance greater public confidence in the legal profession,’ say the Co-Chairpersons.
